

33rd Annual Licking County Rabbit Royalty Contest

When April 29, 2018 at 2:00 p.m.

Where: McKean Community Organization Building

Who can compete: Licking County 4-H members currently enrolled in a rabbit project for the 2018 4-H year.

Queen/King:13-19 years old as of January 1st

Princess/ Prince:8-12 years old as of January 1st

Royalty rules and responsibilities:After an individual has been chosen to hold a title, they are ineligible to compete again for the same title. After a youth has been chosen as Princes or Prince, they must skip a year before they can compete for Queen or King.

All title holders are expected to spend time in the Rabbit barn during the Hartford Fair. The royal court will assist with passing out awards during the shows and sale placards during the small animal sale. Any additional community parades and events are at the discretion of the royal court. When representing the rabbit division, title holders are expected to present themselves professionally and wear their designation accordingly. In the event a member of the royal court is unable to meet the outlined expectations, the respective first runner-up may be asked to finish out the remaining term.

Mail entries by Monday, April 23rd to: Sonia Tilley
